Well Known Attractions To Visit During Your Holidays To Majorca

Planning to enjoy your holidays to Majorca? Then you might want to see these well-known attractions that would make your visit worthwhile.

1. Majorca Caves

Majorca is famous for its enchanting caves. Many of the region's 200 cave systems feature large underground lakes, delicate speleothems, and vast halls. Some caverns even generate eerie acoustics when you lightly strike the rock formations. You can hire an experienced guide to take you to this mysterious underground world.

2. Marineland

Marineland in Gracillaso de la Vega is one of Majorca's most famous attractions. This is a water park that features dolphins and sea lions that are trained to do stunts and tricks. Watch these wonderful marine mammals display breathtaking acrobatics. In addition, Marineland has other facilities. These include the largest collection of sharks in the whole European continent, a circus that features parrots, several aquariums, a reptile zoo, and a crocodile pit. Marineland is also an advocate of marine ecology preservation.

3. Placa Major

Placa Major in Palma, Majorca is a 19th-century city square. The Plaza Major has plenty restaurants, cafes, and souvenir shops. At the middle of the square is a stage where independent entertainers often perform. It is a perfect place to shop and dine.

4. Majorca Harbor

Majorca's waterfront overlooks the grand La Seu Cathedral. From here, you can enjoy spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea. Contrasting but somehow complementing the peaceful view is the energetic frenzy of yachts and boats coming in and out of the harbor. You can also purchase fresh seafood from fishermen who walk down the promenade. You can travel nearby islands or go back to mainland Spain through the ferries that often ply around the area.

5. Aquacity

Aquacity in S'Arsenal, Majorca is a water park that has large pools, exciting slides, and fun playgrounds. Children will really love this place.
